

UF IN SEVILLE

SPANISH LANGUAGE & CULTURE | SUMMER A

COLLEGE INFORMATION

College of Liberal Arts & Sciences

Department of Spanish & Portuguese Studies

Courses are taught by UF and local faculty

PROGRAM

Study Spanish language, literature, and linguistics at the Universidad Internacional Menéndez Pelayo (UIMP). UIMP is one of the oldest and most prestigious universities that offers extensive summer programs in Spain. This is the only way you can earn 6 advanced Spanish credits at UF during the summer. UF in Seville is organized in conjunction with International Studies Abroad (ISA).

LOCATION

Located in the southwest region of Spain, Seville is the capital of Andalusia and the fourth largest city in the country. Seville is known for being one of the jewels of the Islamic Caliphate of Al-Andalus, and later becoming the gateway to the New World. Barrio Santa Cruz, the neighborhoods where you will be most of the time, is a few minutes away from the "the city of reflections."

EXCURSIONS

Students will spend the first few days of the program exploring Madrid and visit two of the most important art museums: the Prado Museum and the Reina Sofia Museum. The program also includes trips to Cordoba and Granada to visit the Mezquita, the Jewish Quarter, and the Alhambra, as well as a day in Malaga, one of the oldest still-inhabited cities in Europe.

HOUSING

You and one other student will stay with a host family in Seville. The host families are selected by ISA (International Studies Abroad). You may request to live alone for an extra charge. The homestay includes three meals a day, seven days a week and laundry once a week.
